THE STORY

Friday, 4pm. Sign by Monday.

The moment

A SaaS vendor sends a 28-page Master Services Agreement. You're not a lawyer. Legal is £250/hr and booked until Thursday.

You sign Monday or lose the deal.

What goes wrong

- Auto-renewal buried on page 19
- Unlimited liability in a side clause
- 90-day notice you'd never spot in time

"Most founders don't read contracts. They survive them."

THE PROBLEM AND MARKET GAP

Small businesses sign contracts blind.

Volume

10–80 pages, always urgent

Cost

£200–£500/hr; first review £500–£2,000+

Hidden risk

Only 6% of UK small businesses have in-house legal

No benchmark

32% had a legal issue; only 3% met need vs 12% unmet

For Founders, freelancers, ops teams without enterprise legal departments.

Legal problems cost UK small businesses billions annually.

Built for founders, not lawyers.

Dear [Counterparty Name],

Regarding Clause 4.2, we'd like to propose an amendment.

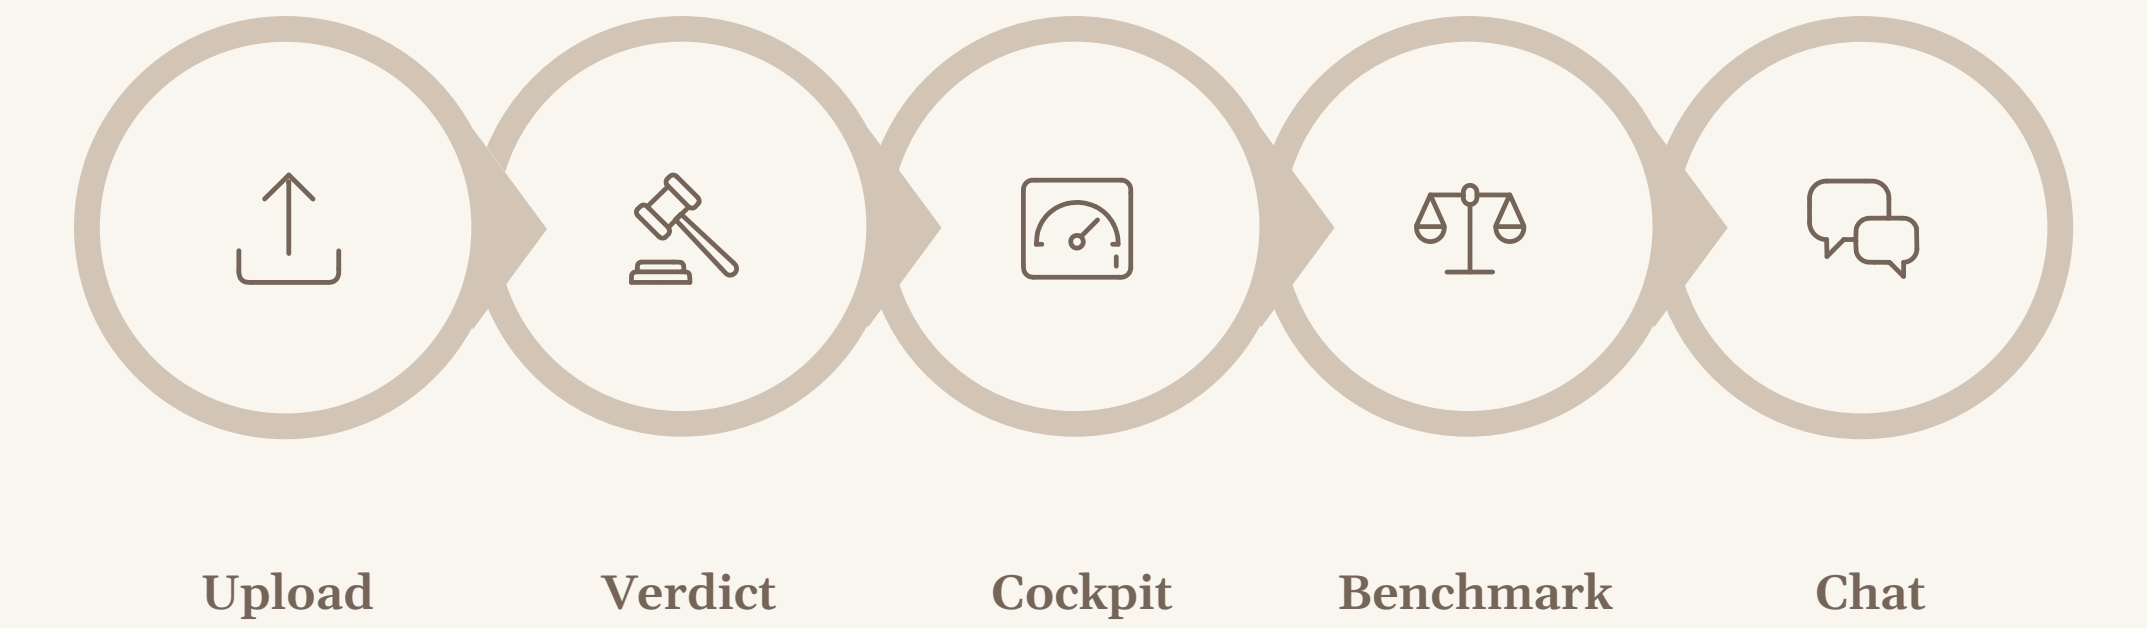

[Red Flag: Uncapped Liability] - Our legal review indicates this clause is standard for this type of agreement, but we request limiting our liability to the total fees paid over the last 12 months. This aligns with market norms.

Looking forward to your thoughts.

Best regards,
[Founder Name]

OCI Generative AI (uk-london-1)

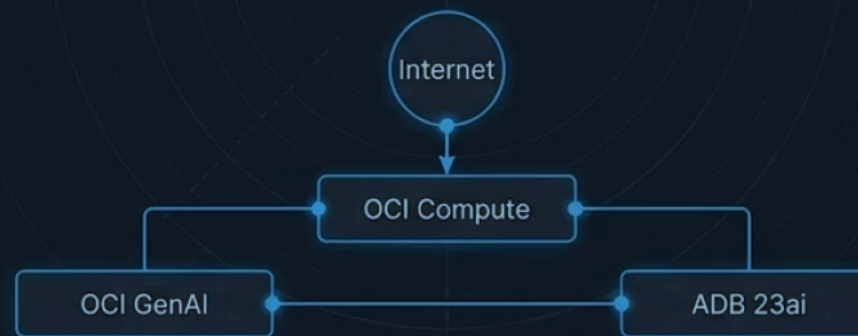

Powers contract analysis, unstructured data extraction, embedding generation, and RAG answers (Cohere Command-R).

Autonomous Database 23ai

Native AI Vector Search (VECTOR + VECTOR_DISTANCE) powers the CUAD market benchmarks, per-document RAG retrieval, and user account schemas.

OCI Compute (Ampere A1)

Hosts the FastAPI backend and React UI seamlessly behind nginx.
